Call Schedulling Can Be A Frustrating Task For Your Juniors...

"I still have nightmares about scheduling for a cross-border IPO..."

"There are many things that I can describe as 'irritating' but finding a time that fits like 20 people on a single email thread is definitely on another level."

"My main client was a VP who resided in California but the company was in [Florida]. Therefore I had to connect with him regularly schedule meetings and it was a NIGHTMARE."

"Typically had to schedule 3-5 calls a week, so I would waste 1-1.5 hours each week on scheduling"

"...I have not experienced more efficient ways to navigate these issues..."
